

Your Preseason Warm-Up

Fall is here and with it are preparations for Boiling Point Players' new season. Known for keeping you on your toes, the Players are introducing some fresh concepts this season. Take a look at the 2016-2017 line-up!

Initially Improv

Cone Man Running
Presents a Boiling
Point Players
Production:

An Improvised Play x3.

This unique performance will feature Houston
improvisors Jessica
Brown, Brittny Bush,
Autumn Clack,
Alison Coriell, Ruth
S McCleskey,
Callina Situka,
Christine Weems.

This three-night
engagement will be different every night.

The plays will be completely made up
with absolutely no
planning and super-
inspired by
audience
suggestions. Yes,
you have power!
Showtimes are Nov
13th, 14th & 15th
at 8:00 PM.

The New Year's A New Day

Nothing says fresh like January and
some original
theater. Therefore,
we're proud to announce our first
event of 2017,
*A New Day
Cabaret.*

So here's how the
prepping works.

Three local photographers will snap pictures of actors. Then three playwrights will
write plays
inspired by the photos. So if a picture is worth a thousand words...

Of course, it
wouldn't be our
kind of cabaret
without improv
and musical
performances!
Showing January
2017. Details to be announced.

The Classic Closer

The third and final event of the season features a Shakespearean
classic with a modern twist.

Cone Man
Running Founder
Christine Weems
directs an all-
female cast for
Comedy of Errors.

Grab a seat and
lose your identity
in one of Shakespeare's
early comedies.
Showing Spring
2017.

Official dates and times to be announced.